Lonham Appoints Matt Haywood as Marine Underwriter

Lonham Insurance Underwriters (Lonham), a member of Chaucer, the international specialty insurance group, announced today the appointment of Matt Haywood as Marine Underwriter to increase Lonham's market leading specialist underwriting and claims service to the UK cargo and freight liability market.

Matt Haywood has over 24 years of specialised marine experience in the freight liability, logistics and cargo areas, covering broking, loss adjusting and client management. He began his career in the UK regional broking market, including time as a loss adjuster with Collyers. He joins from Marsh UK, where he was Senior Vice President and Head of Corporate Marine.

Established in 1983 in Ipswich, Lonham is a leading specialist cargo and freight underwriting agency with an unrivalled commitment to providing the highest standards of service to clients; recognising that underwriting and claims expertise are vital to remaining at the forefront of this market.

"We are very excited to have someone of Matt's calibre join us," said Nick Hamer and Mike Ayres, Underwriting Directors at Lonham. "Working alongside us at Lonham, his unique experience in freight liability and logistics will enhance the underwriting capabilities and continuity of service that our clients value so highly."

"I am delighted to join Lonham's market leading cargo and freight liability team," said Matt Haywood, Marine Underwriter at Lonham. "I have admired the business the team has built for a long-time, and I look forward to working closely with everyone to further increase their specialist services for brokers and clients."
