Chaucer appoints new Renewable Energy Underwriter

Chaucer, the specialist Lloyd's insurance group, is pleased to announce the appointment of Peter Lewis as Renewable Energy Underwriter to lead Chaucer's commitment to worldwide renewable energy business.

Peter has over 10 years of energy market experience as a renewable energy broker. He joins Chaucer's Energy Division from Aon, where he was Director of its Renewable Energy Division and a member of the Power Executive Committee.

Kelan Hunt, Energy Practice Head at Chaucer commented:

"As well as bringing his extensive renewables knowledge to the Chaucer energy team, Peter also provides us with an invaluable broking perspective and both will enhance our offering to our brokers and clients. I welcome Peter to the team."

Peter Lewis, Renewable Energy Underwriter at Chaucer added:

"I am delighted to join Chaucer's market leading energy team and I look forward to working with Kelan to help develop our renewable energy offering and service to brokers and clients."
